Dear Parents, Caregivers and Friends

Welcome everyone to Term 2. A warm welcome is extended to our Deputy Principal Tess Harford who returns from long service leave and to our Librarian Anita Goodwin who travelled to the USA for the last two weeks of Term 1. Marilena Cianfaglione will be on long service leave until the beginning of Week 5. At the end of last term our school was invited to participate in a National Partnership Project to Improve Numeracy this year. This project is funded by the Australian Government. One of the benefits of participating in the project means we receive funding for a teacher to take on the role of Numeracy Coach who works in classrooms supporting teachers. Micki Panos will take on this role for the remainder of the year. Anita Baldo will continue to teach Year 6.

I returned from Italy on Saturday night having spent the first week attending the Reggio Emelia Study Tour for the first five days of the holiday break with Marilena Cianfaglione. Over 400 educators attended the course from across the world including educators from Catholic Education SA. We have 8 Preschools in our sector and 6 Principals attended the course as well as other teachers from our schools.

The study course was an excellent professional learning opportunity. The course included lectures and visits to Infant Toddler Centres (0-3 years), Preschools (3 - 5 years) and a Primary school. The Reggio approach to education is unique (especially in Italy). The city of Reggio Emelia has committed for the past 50 years to invest in the early years of learning. They value quality education and believe that education is the foundation for a civil society. Their approach is one that recognises that there are many ways to learn. They believe children are unique and should be respected and recognised as citizens with equal rights. On our visits to the various centres we were able to witness the use of space and the different learning projects that the centres were working on. It was excellent to be with Marilena who could engage with teachers in Italian and so we were able to learn even more. It will take some time to absorb the time in Reggio and I hope to share my learning with you over time.

The following photos from Reggio don't give justice to what we experienced. Unfortunately we weren't allowed to take photos inside the centres and these were only captured outside when allowed. The photo of the design is of a school being currently planned.
In the second week I had the opportunity to travel to Cinque Terre, Montalcino and Florence. This experience raised my awareness and appreciation of the Italian culture and traditions that is so rich and is obviously so important to today's Italians. I extend my thanks to Catholic Education for providing the funding for the Reggio Emilia Study Tour through the Principals Renewal Leave Program.

As we begin the second term my hope is that we can continue to work together to support your child's learning.

With best wishes

Leanne Carr
Principal

We once again congratulate Jess Woolford now Gribn on her marriage to Nick on the 13 April

From the Principal

Dear Parents, Caregivers and Friends

Welcome to Term Two, it’s great to be back! I had a fabulous Long Service Leave with many memorable experiences, I spent most of the time in Adelaide, cleaned my house from the back fence to the front and was able to spend time with my mum as well as others who I don’t often have time to catch up with. I began Mindfulness training and am now more able to quieten my mind and listen more deeply – it’s hard! I also spent some time reflecting on being a Deputy Principal and the manner in which I serve your community and I am really looking forward to the year ahead. If I haven’t had the opportunity to meet you yet, please don’t hesitate to stop and introduce yourself or pop into my office for a chat – the door is open.

Keep smiling

Tess Harford
Deputy Principal
From the APRIM

Welcome back after the term break. This week we celebrate the feast of St Joseph the Worker:

“Whatever you do, do from the heart, as for the Lord and not for me: knowing that you will receive from the Lord the due payment of the inheritance, be slaves of the Lord Christ.” Colossians 3: 23-24

We pray to St Joseph the worker, not for wealth in material things, but for a rich life. We focus on work as not needing to be perfect, but as being interesting, and providing us with fulfillment in our spiritual gifts. We ask St Joseph for intercession in this area of our lives.

This term the classes will continue to lead the Friday Community Masses in the Church of Annunciation at 9.15am and all parents and friends of our community are invited to attend.

The Sacramental program will continue with the homegroup meetings for the next two weeks, and then the Confirmation liturgies at selected times in Week 3 of this term.

As we reflect on our community during this Year of Integrity, we are asked to acknowledge the contribution we each make to forming the faith journey of our children. May the grace of God be with us all as we endeavor to bring to life the love of Jesus within our hearts.

Reminders for this week:
Sacramental Home group meetings continue this week at 7 - 8pm.
Friday 3 May, Year 6 T will be leading the Friday Community Mass at 9.15am in Church of Annunciation
Friday 10 May, Year 5 EC will be leading the Friday Community Mass at 9.15am in Church of Annunciation
Friday 10 May, Year 4 Reconciliation at 11.00am in Church of Annunciation
Thursday 16 May, and Friday 17 May, Confirmation in Church of Annunciation at 7.00pm
Saturday 18 May, Confirmation in Church of Annunciation at 2.00pm

Many blessings to each of you and your families.
